

one in there that caused me a lot of grief. Yes, he did. Yes, he had one in there that I could not defend myself for voting for it. So I want to be really assured by everybody that these are actually as noncontroversial as the two that I have in there.

PRESIDENT: I believe, Senator Haberman, you are withdrawing your motion?

SENATOR HABERMAN: Mr. President, if it is going to upset Senator Lamb, I'll withdraw it and let's just vote on them individually and let it go.

PRESIDENT: Very well. Proceed with LR 76.

CLERK: LR 76, Mr. President, is on page 1105 of the Journal.

PRESIDENT: I believe, Mr. Sergeant, we are finished with Final Reading. We can "unloose" the chute now.

CLERK: Mr. President, 76 is offered by Senator Baack. It is on page 1105. (Read introduction.)

PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes Senator Baack, and at the same time the Chair would ask for order (gavel) in the Chamber so that we may hear (gavel) Senator Baack's presentation.

SENATOR BAACK: Mr. President, members, this is a resolution honoring the town of Sidney for their 100th anniversary. The celebration will be held from July 3 to July 7 with the main events occurring on July 4. You are all invited out there. Thank you.

PRESIDENT: Senator Wesely.

SENATOR WESELY: Mr. President, members, this is the 100th centennial of Sidney. I was just wondering, was Sidney founded by Bob Clark? (laughter)

SENATOR BAACK: I think so.

SENATOR WESELY: He told me that. I just wanted to make sure. Okay, thank you.
